17. The Plaintiffs' damages, if any, are not causally related to any act or omission by Defendant, and are, therefore, not the legal responsibility of Defendant.
18. The Plaintiffs' damages, if any, are the result of conduct of persons or parties other than Defendant, and are the legal responsibility of persons or parties other than Defendant.
19. The Plaintiffs have failed to mitigate their damages.
20. The Plaintiffs has waived their right to pursue this litigation against Defendant.
21. The Plaintiffs' claims are barred by discharge in bankruptcy.
22. The Plaintiffs' lawsuit is premature.
23. The Plaintiffs' claims for relief are barred to the extent they seek damages in excess of the limits imposed by applicable law.
24. Defendant is entitled to a setoff for all sums of money recovered by or on behalf of the Plaintiffs, as judgment, settlement, or otherwise, entered into or received by the Plaintiffs from any party or non-party to this action.
25. The claims asserted in the Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

26. Defendant reserves the right to allege any other defense(s) available in law or in fact learned of throughout discovery. Defendant expressly reserves its right to amend this Answer to assert any and all such defenses.

27. Defendant specifically reserves the right to adopt and incorporate any affirmative defenses permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including, but not limited to, the affirmative defenses permitted under Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 8(c), which it learns are applicable to the instant litigation.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Stevens Transport, Inc., respectfully requests:

- A. that the Complaint and Request for Jury Trial be dismissed with prejudice;
- B. that they be awarded the costs of attorneys' fees incurred in defending this action;
- C. that judgment be entered in their favor and for the cost of this lawsuit; and
- D. that this Court grants such other and further relief as the nature of its cause may require.

Respectfully submitted,
